

ABSTRACT

This study was conducted to determine the Factors Affecting Unemployment of Bachelor Social Work Graduates in Pilar, Specifically, it aimed to determine the socio-demographic profile of the respondents and affecting Unemployment.

The study was conducted in Pilar. A total of 30 respondents were chosen using the proportionate random technique. A questionnaire was used to gather data. Frequency count, percentage and mean were used to analyze Data.

Majority of the respondents were from Bachelor of Science in Social Work and were males, most of their unemployment.

Frequency distribution and percentage were statistical tools used to describe the socio-demographic profile respondents; were male aging 24-39 years old, had civil status of single, married and widowed.

In general, respondents of the study were uncertain of the factors that affecting of unemployment in Social Work Graduates in Pilar.