

ABSTRACT

The “Status of Student’s COVID-19 Vaccination in CapSU Pilar” is a study that used a complete enumeration that was conducted to determine the status of students of CapSU Pilar COVID-19 vaccination. This study was conducted from October 2022 to May 2024. Specifically, the study investigates to determine the numbers of vaccinated, not vaccinated, boosted or not boosted and what type of vaccines does the most frequently used by the students. The respondents of the study were composed of 938 students from all department excluded the on-the-job training 4th year student. The statistical used in analyzing the data were the descriptive statistics in the form of frequency count and percentage. Overall, this study is beneficiary to the faculty and staff of the school in some manner as it will help them ascertain the vaccination rate of the students and increase the awareness about receiving the COVID-19 vaccine is a safer method of developing immunity against the virus than contracting it through infection.

Keywords: students, vaccine, status, covid-19.